Sydney's Population Growth — is it Sustainable?

DICK SMITH

Businessman Entrepreneur Adventurer Philanthropist Aviator and Passionate Advocate for the Environment

Dick Smith is one of Australia's most well-known and respected personalities. So much so, that in 2005 the National Trust nominated him as one of 'Australia's Living Treasures'.

Dick is active in many fields of public life. He talks and travels widely all over the country and is never shy to take on difficult topics—from aviation safety to supporting refugees and the fair treatment of David Hicks. When Dick talks, people listen. They may not agree, but they never doubt his sincerity

His latest interest is in initiating a debate on Australia's addiction to population and economic growth, sparked by his concern for the future his grandchildren will face.

ADMISSION IS FREE AND ALL ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND
